INFORMATION REPORT INFORMATION REPORT

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

DATE DISTR. 27 July 1955 25X1 Information, Amoy NO. OF PAGES 2 REQUIREMENT REFERENCES 2 ACQUIRED DATE ACQUIRED SCHIBCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. the average salary of a flishing junk crew man in Amoy was from 30 to 40 new Yuan per month. The flishermen's association bought the fish for 10-20 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty, and sold to civilians. Fish could not be sold to individuals, but the fishermen could keep one or two cetties of fish per family. The fishermen received prompt payments from the fishing association, although there was a delay in payments when there were many boats in the harbor. 2. Two artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot horizontally positioned tube four inches in diameter and with a flash hider fellminator), were observed in the wooded area in front of the Amoy University on the ledge over- looking the beach. The guns were covered with a endoughaged with nets and foliage. There was a revetment of sandbage. 3. four artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot vertically position- ed tube fourth two to three inches in diameter and without wheels, were in a cleared area in the Amoy tidal basin. Near each gun was a tent holding seven to eight man, and over 30 men in dark khaki uniforms were loitering in the erea. 4. the Amoy Shipyard was in the tidal basin. The No. 1 dock was repairing a 50-foot wooden ferry with an inboard engine. The ferry was drydocked on skid, and it had two Chinese characters painted andiships. The No. 2 dock was repetiring small sempans. There were about 25 unarmed sampans in the tidal basin. 5. six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in Amoy harbor. Bach boat was armed with one bow gun and one stern gun about one and one-half inches in diameter, two guns amadiships, and machinegums. Each boat was ma	10, 0.5.0	. Jeus. 13	u 104, W	·	C-O-N-F-				neutnomzed	person is p	ronibited by	IAW.	25 X 1
DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED DATE ACQUIRED SOURCE EVAILATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 1. the average salary of a fishing junk crew man in Amoy was from 30 to 40 new Yuan per month. The fishermen's association bought the fish for 10-20 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty; only a small part of the catch was sold to civilians. Fish could not be sold to individuals, but the fishermen could keep one or two catties of fish per family. The fishermen received prompt payments from the fishing association, although there was a delay in payments when there were many boats in the harbor. 2. Two artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot horizontally positioned tube barrel three to four inches in diameter and with a flash hider feliminator, were observed in the wooded area in front of the Amoy University on the ledge covrolocking the beach. The guns were covered with canvas and camouflaged with nets and foliage. There was a revetment of sandbage. 3. four artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot vertically positioned tube barrel four inches in diameter and without wheels, were in a cleared area in the Amoy tidal beain. Near each gun was a tent holding seven to eight man, and over 30 men in dark khaki uniforms were lottering in the area. 4. was repairing a 50-foot wooden ferry with an inboard engine. The ferry was drydocked on skids and it had two Ohinese characters painted amidnips. The No. 2 dock was repairing small sampans. There were about 25 unarmed sampans in the tidal basin. 5. six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in Amoy harbor. Each boat was armed with one box gun amidninguns. 5. six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in Amoy harbor. Each boat was armed with one box gun and one etern gun about one and one-half inches in diameter, two guns amidnings, and machineguns. 5. Each boat was manned by shout ten men. C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L 25X1	COUNTRY		China				and a market market	REPORT					Ì
DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED CAUSED This is UNEVALUATED Information SCHECE EVAILATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE 25X1 from 30 to 40 new Yuan per month. The fishermen's association bought the fish for 10-20 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty; only a small part of the catch was sold to civilians. Fish could not be sold to individuals, but the fishermen could keep one or two catties of fish per family. The fishermen received prompt payments from the fishing association, although there was a delay in payments when there were many boats in the harbor. 2. Two artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot horizontally positioned tube / Darrel/ three to four inches in diameter and with a flash hider / Eliminator/, were observed in the wooded area in front of the Amoy University on the ledge overlooking the beach. The guns were covered with canvas and camouflaged with nets and foliage. There was a revetment of sandbags. 3. four artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot vertically positioned tube / Darrel/ two to three inches in diameter and without wheels, were in a cleared area in the Amoy tidal basin. Near each gun was a tent holding seven to eight man, and over 30 men in dark khaki uniforms were lottering in the area. 4. the Amoy Shipyard was in the tidal basin. The No. 1 dock was repairing a 50-foot wooden ferry with an inboard engine. The ferry was drydocked on skids and it had two Chinese characters painted amidehips. The No. 2 dock was repairing small sampans. There were about 25 unarmed sampans in the tidal basin. 5. six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in Amoy harbor. Each boat was armed by about ten men. 25X1	SUBJECT		Gun Emp Informa	lacements tion, Amo	and Port	:					July 195	55	25X1
This is UNEVALUATED Information SOurce evaluations are definitive appraisal of content is tentative the average salary of a flishing junk crew man in amoy was fish for 10-20 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty; only a small part of the catch was sold to divitions. Fish could not be sold to individuals, but the fishermen could keep one or two catties of fish per family. The fishermen received prompt payments from the fishing association, although there was a delay in payments when there were many boats in the harbor. 2. Two artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot horizontally positioned tube barrely three to four inches in diameter and with a flash hider falminator, were observed in the wooded area in front of the amoy University on the ledge overlooking the beach. The guns were covered with canvas and camouflaged with nets and foliage. There was a revetment of sandbags. 3. four artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot vertically positioned tube barrely two to three inches in diameter and without wheels, were in a cleared area in the Amoy tidal beain. Near each gun was a tent holding seven to eight man, and over 30 men in dark khaki uniforms were lottering in the area. 4. the Amoy Shipyard was in the tidal basin. The No. 1 dock was repairing a 50-foot wooden ferry with an inboard engine. The ferry was drydocked on skids and it had two Chinese characters painted amdiships. The No. 2 dock was repairing small sampans. There were about 25 unarmed sampans in the tidal basin. 5. six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in amoy harbor. Each boat was armed with one bow gun and one etern gun about one and one-half inches in diameter, two guns amidships, and machineguns. Each boat was manmed by about ten men. C-O-N-F-I-D-B-N-T-I-A-L 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1										2			0EV4
1. the average salary of a fishing junk crew man in Amoy was from 30 to 40 new Yuan per month. The fishermen's association bought the fish for 10-20 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty only a small part of the catch was sold to civilians. Fish could not be sold to individuals, but the fishermen could keep one or two catties of fish per family. The fishermen received prompt payments from the fishing association, although there was a delay in payments when there were many boats in the harbor. 2. Two artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot horizontally positioned tube [Darrel] three to four inches in diameter and with a flash hider [eliminator], were observed in the wooded area in front of the Amoy University on the ledge overlooking the beach. The guns were covered with canvas and camouflaged with nets and foliage. There was a revetment of sandbags. 3. do the wooded area in front of the Amoy University on the ledge overlooking the beach. The guns were covered with canvas and camouflaged with nets and foliage. There was a revetment of sandbags. 5. four artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot vertically positioned to three inches in diameter and without wheels, were in a cleared area in the Amoy tidal basin. Near each gun was a tent holding seven to eight man, and over 30 men in dark khaki uniforms were loitering in the area. 4. the Amoy Shipyard was in the tidal basin. The No. 1 dock was repairing a 50-foot wooden ferry with an inboard engine. The ferry was drydocked on skids and it had two Chinese characters painted and ships. The No. 2 dock was repairing small sampans. There were about 25 unarmed sampans in the tidal basin. 5. six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in Amoy harbor. Each boat was armed by about ten men. C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L 25X1 25X1													25 X T
the average salary of a fishing junk crew man in Amoy was from 30 to 40 new Yuan per month. The fishermen's association bought the fish for 10-20 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty; only a small part of the catch was sold to civilians. Fish could not be sold to individuals, but the fishermen could keep one or two catties of fish per family. The fishermen received prompt payments from the fishing association, although there was a delay in payments when there were many boats in the harbor. Two artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot horizontally positioned tube [Darrel] three to four inches in diameter and with a flash hider [eliminator], were observed in the wooded area in front of the Amoy University on the ledge over- looking the beach. The guns were covered with canvas and camouflaged with nets and foliage. There was a revetment of sandbags. four artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot vertically position- ed tube [barrel] two to three inches in diameter and without wheels, were in a cleared area in the Amoy tidal basin. Near each gun was a tent holding seven to eight man, and over 30 men in dark khaki uniforms were loitering in the area. the Amoy Shipyard was in the tidal basin. The No. 1 dock was repairing a 50-foot wooden ferry with an inboard engine. The ferry was drydocked on skids, and it had two Chinese characters painted amdiships. The No. 2 dock was repairing small sampans. There were about 25 unarmed sampans in the tidal basin. Six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in Amoy harbor. Each boat was armed with one bow gun and one stern gun about one and one-half inches in diameter, two guns amidships, and machineguns. Each boat was manned by about ten men. Three of the boats were anchored at Kulanghsu and three were in the outer harbor. C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L	PLACE ACC	QUIRED					ता प्र	REFERENCE
the average salary of a fishing junk crew man in Amoy was from 30 to 40 new Yuan per month. The fishermen's association bought the fish for 10-20 cents per catty and sold the fish for 25-30 cents per catty; only a small part of the catch was sold to civilians. Fish could not be sold to individuals, but the fishermen could keep one or two catties of fish per family. The fishermen received prompt payments from the fishing association, although there was a delay in payments when there were many boats in the harbor. 2. Two artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot horizontally positioned tube /barrel/ three to four inches in diameter and with a flash hider /eliminator/, were observed in the wooded area in front of the Amoy University on the ledge over- looking the beach. The guns were covered with canvas and camouflaged with nets and foliage. There was a revetment of sandbags. 25x1 3. four artillery pieces, each with a 7-foot vertically position- ed tube /barrel/ two to three inches in diameter and without wheels, were in a cleared area in the Amoy tidal basin. Near each gun was a tent holding seven to eight man, and over 30 men in dark khaki uniforms were loitering in the area. 4. was repairing a 50-foot wooden ferry with an inboard engine. The ferry was drydocked on skids, and it had two Chinese characters painted amdiships. The No. 2 dock was repairing small sampans. There were about 25 unarmed sampans in the tidal basin. 5. six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in Amoy harbor. Each boat was armed by about ton men. Three of the boats were anchored at Kulanghsu and three were in the outer harbor. C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L 25x1 25x1 25x1	DATE ACQ	UIRED		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·			اللالات	مكامال			LUATED	Inform	ation
ed tube /barrel/ two to three inches in diameter and without wheels, were in a cleared area in the Amoy tidal basin. Near each gun was a tent holding seven to eight man, and over 30 men in dark khaki uniforms were loitering in the area. 25% 4.	2. !	fish to only a sold to family althous harbor. Two arthree observices in the contract of the co	for 10-2 a small; to indiv. The : agh there tillery to four red in the	new Yuan O cents pe part of th iduals, but fishermen e was a de pieces, e inches in he wooded each. The	per month r catty a me catch with ceceived lay in pa ach with diameter area in f guns wer e was a r	h. The and sol was sol hermen prompt ayments a 7-for and w front o cre coverevetments	e fisher ld the f ld to c could h c paymen s when t cot hori rith a f f the A red wit nt of s	men's artish for vilians seep one ts from here were zontally lash hid moy University and bags	ssociation 25-30 control 25-30	cents per could no catties shing as boats in coned turninator on the mouflage	ht the r catty; ot be of fish sociation the Darre 7, were ledge over the bed with	25X1 per n, el7 er-	25X1 25X1 was repairing a 50-foot wooden ferry with an inboard engine. The ferry was drydocked on skids and it had two Chinese characters painted amdiships. The No. 2 dock was repairing small sampans. There were about 25 unarmed sampans in the tidal basin. 5. six or seven grey gunboats, 50 feet in length with a steel hull, were in Amoy harbor. Each boat was armed with one bow gun and one stern gun about one and one-half inches in diameter, two guns amidships, and machineguns. Each boat was manned by about ten men. Three of the boats were anchored at Kulanghsu and three were in the outer harbor. 25X1 C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L 25X1	6	cleare	d area i	l/ two to n the Amo	three in y tidal b	ches in	n diame Near e	ter and ach gun	without was a	wheels tent ho	, were in Lding sev	na ven to	25X1 were in Amoy harbor. Each boat was armed with one bow gun and one stern gun about one and one-half inches in diameter, two guns amidships, and machineguns. Each boat was manned by about ten men. Three of the boats were anchored at Kulanghsu and three were in the outer harbor. C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L 25X1 STATE X ARMYEV X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	w d N	lrydoc Io. 2	ked on s d o ck was	a 50-foot kids and repairing	wooden f it had tw	erry wo	ith an ese cha	inboard racters	engine. painted	The fe	erry was Lps. The
STATE X ARMYEV X NAVY X AIR X FBI AEC	w a E	bout dach be	n Amoy hone and oat was	arbor. Es one-half i manned by	ach boat inches in about te ne boats	was arn diamet n men. were ar	med with ter, two chored	n one bo guns a at Kula	w gun a midship	nd one s s, and m	tern gun achinegu	ns.	25X1] 25X
	•						_,  	-		ı		- Las	25X1
	STATE	x	ARMY E ♥	X NAVY	x	AIR	X FBI	AEC	:				25X1

REPORT

INFORMATION REPORT

	C-0-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-I.
	··2-
were anchored in Hau bow gun about five f	hree motorized junks, each with a capacity of l tzu (N 24-24, E 118-04). Each junk was armed w eet long, covered with canvas. Each junk was m n army uniforms, and the junks were the only pat	th one
green.	The boats were painted black and a	lso blue Comment.
up to 30 days.	Fishing boats remain at sea	for periods
		25 X 1
		Mine
		*
	C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L	ė,
		18.